

Flying Music

Employment Opportunity

Flying Music is the foremost producer of conceptual theatre shows in the UK. With productions like Thriller Live, The Kite Runner, Rat Pack: Live from Las Vegas and Dancing In The Streets, Flying Music continues to grow its theatre business, as well as remaining a key player in concert promotion, and has the following opportunity to join our busy team.

Job Title	Booking Manager
Department	Booking
Based at	FM House

Main Responsibilities

The successful candidate will be responsible for booking UK tours for shows in the company's portfolio, including music artists, West End musicals and plays. You will be liaising with a variety of venues across the UK, with responsibility for both routing and negotiation.

This would suit someone with some previous booking experience in the field of entertainment who is looking to step up the career ladder and work on a variety of projects, from established large scale production shows to new material.

You should be able to demonstrate:

- Exceptional organisational levels
- Excellent knowledge of MS Office
- Ability to forge and maintain good working relationships with venue programmers
- Strong, proven negotiation skills
- Understanding of contracts and settlements
- Experience within the corporate events world and/or overseas bookings would be advantageous but not essential

Salary dependant on experience.

Job Reference	JS037
---------------	-------